“ To my Tío who taught me what being genuine and pure love is  He would call me consistently to “ check on me”, telling me that he needed to make sure I’m ok but that he knew he had nothing to offer me. That I was smart, and had my “sh*t “ together, the simple act of love, a genuine call was pure, wanting nothing from me with exception of hearing my voice.... and a tamale now then lol ... proclaiming I had the touch. My Tío, who was genuine and sincere at all costs, despite the critics... He taught me to never let anyone make you feel bad for your opinion, to stick to what is genuine for you, what it was to be genuine in LIFE, not just in the eyes of fear of losing someone to the hands of death. He spoke of his daughters to me often, and loved them so genuinely despite life’s spirals. I learned so much from him.... Despite the critics he had a pure heart. I love you Tio, going to miss you stopping by for your plate at Thanksgiving No matter what he was doing in the world, he made it “home” for a thanksgiving since my Mom served him the Turkey leg as a little girl, and continued with my turkeys...lol

“ Im at a loss for words, I loved my primo very much. I hadnt seen Albert until I seen at my Tia Marys Funeral. He had a smile on his face, a smile of joy and happiness that I had acknowledged him. I had said Albert come here I would like to introduce you to my daughter Valarie whom he had never met, of course he said Hello. When he went into hospice I tried calling him several times in hopes that I would get to speak to him, not the case. When I heard he expired, I missed my phone call that was gonna make this easy on me but it didnt happen. I know my Tia Oovie was the first one to embrace him when he left this world. He was such a jokester always. Im gonna miss him tremendously. For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whomever believes in him shall not perish but have an everlasting life John 3:16 Albert your perpetual light will shine upon us forever and ever. I love you Albert Thank you for being a part of my life. Till we meet again as my Poppa would say....I offer my Condolences to my Primos and Primas Nunez and may you find Comfort in this difficult time. Love you Your Cousin Debbie Montoya Valarie Arismendez Nicolette Arismendez Noah and Ava

“ During one of Albert's last days in the hospital he was reminiscing with me. One of my favorite stories he told was when he, me, and Freddy were rolling around on the floor at the Safeway in Windsor because "someone" , I can't remember who, had thrown a piece of candy on the floor and we were fighting over it! Mom was so mad at us! Well we were poor, and it wasn't often that we saw candy. Albert and I were laughing about this 40+ years later. We love you Albert, and we will laugh with you again! Love, Yoli
