“ June loved God, her family, and friends, in that order. She was not preachy ~ June lived her faith of kindness, generosity, compassion, and commitment. June had a great sense of humor and was a real sharp card player. One of my happiest memories is playing cards with June, her daughter, Candy, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. June loved to play cards and she loved to win. There was lots of laughter, lots of teasing, and lots of fun. June will be missed more than words can ever say.

With love, Pam
