

John Carr

January 5, 1951 - January 7, 2024

John Carr was born on January 5, 1951, in Garberville, California, passed away peacefully on January 7, 2024, in Cloverdale, California. He grew up in the serene town of Gualala and graduated from Pt. Arena High School.

In his younger years, John was a hardworking logger, and later transitioned to a career as a truck driver, a role he dedicated himself to for 13 years. His journey did not stop there, as he also spent a decade in the towing industry, where his reliability and skill were greatly valued. Beyond his professional life, John enjoyed gardening, and was an avid weightlifter, always challenging himself to reach new heights of physical fitness.

He was preceded in death by his siblings Robert Carr, Mike Carr, and Liz Carr, who will now welcome him with open arms. John leaves behind a loving family, including his sons, Casey, Clayton, and Brandon, and his devoted companion, Janet Perotti. He was a cherished grandfather to eight grandchildren: Chela, Nenna, Rosie, Keshaya, Tasiana, Thomas, Tamia, and Diego. His memory will also be honored by his siblings, Charlie Carr, Joan Cabezut, Virginia Jean Event, Patricia Sams, and Delores Schumacher. As well as numerous other family members and friends.

Per John's wishes, there will be no services held at this time.
