

Martha Gonzalez Rocha

August 19, 1979 - November 24, 2023

Martha Gonzalez Rocha - born in Jalisco, Mexico on August 19, 1979, passed away unexpectedly in Santa Rosa on November 24, 2023. A cherished daughter, mother, sister, aunt, and friend, Martha's sudden departure leaves a void in the hearts of many.

Growing up in Santa Rosa and recently residing in Rohnert Park, Martha was known for her vibrant spirit and profound love for her family and friends. She was an active member of her community, dedicating her time to various arts and crafts volunteering initiatives. Her passion for dancing, listening to music, and being surrounded by her loved ones were the essence of her joyful life.

Martha's inside joke was that she was a member of "Casa Del Mar". To Martha, family was her world, and she extended her love and care to relatives and friends who became her chosen family.

She leaves behind her loving mother and stepfather, Maria & Jesse Quiroz; her adored sons, Beto & Tony; her cherished daughter, Bella; her devoted sisters, Gloria & Luisa; her caring uncle, Jorge; her affectionate aunts, Chavela and Rosa; her bother-in-law Juan Garcia; and her dear nieces, Jasmin, Liliana, Gaby; and nephews, Juan Jose Jr., Oscar, Cisco, Carlo. As well as her great-nieces, Alanii and Nalayah, and numerous cousins, including Claudia, Rocio, Anahi, Naomi, Luis, and many other family members and friends who will miss her deeply.

A visitation to honor and remember Martha will be held at Windsor Healdsburg Mortuary, located at 9660 Old Redwood Hwy, Windsor, on Thursday, December 7, 2023, from 2:00 pm to 5:00 pm.
