

Nicolasa Correa De Garcia

November 13, 1947 - October 21, 2024

Nicolasa Correa de Garcia, 76, passed away peacefully on October 21, 2024, in Vacaville, California. Born on November 13, 1947, in San Nicolás de La Torre, Querétaro, Mexico, Nicolasa grew up in Mexico City before establishing her home in Sonoma County, where she lived for the past 33 years.

Nicolasa was a dedicated housekeeper known for her hard work and strong commitment to her family. A devout Catholic, she cherished her faith and loved attending church services. Her warmth and generosity extended to her passions, including cooking and watching telenovelas. Most importantly, she treasured the time spent with her loving husband, Nicolas Garcia Bolanos, and her children and grandchildren.

Nicolasa is preceded in death by her parents, Guadalupe and Jose Correa; her sister, Agustina Correa; and her beloved granddaughter, Montserrat. She is survived by her husband, Nicolas, 3 children Lilia Olvera, Jose Luis Garcia Correa and Guadalupe Garcia. She is also survived by her ten cherished grandchildren, who will carry on her legacy of love and strength.

Visitation will be held on Thursday, October 24, 2024, from 4:00 PM to 7:00 PM at Windsor Healdsburg Mortuary Chapel, located at 9660 Old Redwood Hwy. in Windsor. A Catholic Mass in her honor will be celebrated on Friday, October 25, 2024, at 11:00 AM at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Windsor.
