

Olga Margaret Wiens

March 11, 1933 - August 22, 2025

Olga Margaret Wiens, a beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully at her home in Geyserville, CA on August 22, 2025, at the age of 92. Born on March 11, 1933, in New Hamburg, Canada, Olga grew up surrounded by the beauty of the Canadian landscape and the warmth of a large family. She was a deeply creative soul — an artist, cartoonist, and writer — whose talents touched everyone who knew her. Her life was a tapestry of stories, colors, and wit, woven with deep compassion and quiet strength. Olga was the foundation of her family — the person everyone turned to for guidance, comfort, and love. She had an old-fashioned way of showing affection, but her love was deep, unwavering, and unmistakable. She shared her wisdom generously and her spirit inspired those around her. A lifelong advocate for animals, Olga had a special place in her heart for dogs. Her beloved companions brought her great joy, and it's comforting to imagine her now in a place of peace, throwing doggie balls among rose gardens in bloom.

She was preceded in death by her seven brothers, and is survived by her devoted son, Nicholas Godbeer, daughter-in-law Ari Godbeer, and cherished granddaughter Chanapa Kongrasri. Olga also leaves behind her two loving sisters, Audrey Saunders and Ella Mummery. In accordance with her wishes, Olga will be cremated and her urn will be set on display for those who wish to pay their respects at the Windsor Healdsburg Mortuary Chapel, 9660 Old Redwood Hwy., Windsor, CA, on Thursday, August 28, 2025, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, donations in Olga's memory can be made to the ASPCA, honoring her lifelong dedication to animals:<https://www.aspca.org/>

“ I honor a woman of extraordinary warmth and love – my dear mother, Olga Wiens. She was the foundation of our small family and the one we turned to for everything.

She had so much wisdom and an enduring supply of love for everyone, shown in an old fashion way, but you knew she loved you. Her heart cared and her spirit inspired. She was an advocate and voice for all animals around the world. Mom loved her dogs more than life its self. She can throw doggie balls somewhere among the most beautiful rose gardens.

She was our teacher, our guide and our greatest supporter. Mom’s deep love for artistry, performing arts, literature, limericks, puns and cartooning made her one amazingly special and unique woman. Her legacy of love, wisdom and resilience lives in each of us.

Thank you for everything that you have done for us. You will be forever in hour hearts. Sharing life with you was an absolutely beautiful experience, I was so lucky to have you as my mother. Mom we promise you we will be kind and good people. I will move forward, though it will be hard. I hope to reunite with you in the next life, I will always follow you for ever. Love you with all my heart. Rest in peace Mom 🌹❤️🙏
