

Pamela Ann Smith

April 18, 1951 - October 21, 2024

Pamela Ann Smith passed away on October 21, 2024 after a rapid acceleration of deteriorating health over several months. In her final days at home, she was supported and cared for by many family members and friends.

Pam was born on April 18th, 1951, at Oakland Naval Hospital in Oakland California. She was born into a military family and traveled extensively within and outside of the country throughout her childhood. Pam graduated from Castro Valley Highschool in 1969. In her earlier years Pam worked as a flight attendant as well as an employee within the Holiday Inn Hotel franchise.

In later life she worked for over 30 years in accounting for many local wineries. While working for Holiday inn in Oakland Pam met Bob on blind Date in July of 1977. After a whirl wind romance, they were married on December 30th that same year. Pam and Bob moved to Sonoma County in 1980 when Bob took a position with the Sanat Rosa police department.

What Pam enjoyed most in life was spending time with family and friends, attending sporting events for her children and grandchildren. Pam loved the holidays especially when it came to decorating and entertaining family and friends. Pam had a tremendous love and unique fascination for Disneyland which greatly influenced their Christmas décor which was admired by all.

Pam is survived by

Husband Bob “grumpy” The love of her Life

Brother Jerry (Sue)

Daughter Jenny (James)

Son Tom (Anna)

Son Josh (Shelly)

And a soccer team of grandchildren, and an extended family of many relatives and friends
