

Priscilla Katherine Cutter

June 29, 1930 - January 7, 2024

Priscilla Katherine Cutter, also known as Cill, died after a short illness in the early morning hours of Sunday, January 7th at Serenity Villa. Priscilla was born to Arthur and Julia Cutter on June 29, 1930 in South Ashburnham, Massachusetts and was the third of their four children. After graduating from Cushing Academy in Ashburnham, she attended Syracuse University, married, and later graduated cum laude from Adelphi University. Cill lived for many years on Long Island, New York where she held jobs as a secretary, technical writer, and editor. She was an accomplished pianist and accompanied several choral groups. She loved to sing and enjoyed opera. In the 1980s Cill moved to Santa Rosa to be closer to family. In California, Priscilla found a new love in hiking and exploring the outdoors, swimming every day in the summer. She loved to bike to coffee downtown daily. She was a dear friend to many of her neighbors at Santa Rosa Village. She had a wonderful flair for the dramatic in the way that only a zany aunt can have, and will be missed greatly by those who had the gift of knowing her.

Priscilla is survived by her sister, Nancy Richards, as well as three nephews and two nieces. She is predeceased by her brothers, Arthur Cutter Jr. and James Cutter. There will be a private family gathering to celebrate her life.
