

Rosanne Claire Bertuccelli

September 10, 1935 - October 24, 2022

Rosanne Claire Hagan Bertuccelli was reunited with her husband Vic unexpectedly on Monday October 24th, 2022. She died at home in Windsor. Rosanne was born on September 10th, 1935, in San Francisco CA. She was a third generation San Franciscan and very proud of her history. She was the youngest daughter of Bernard Hagan and Marcella McGee. Her older siblings were Bernard, William, and Marcella. She attended Saint Cecilia's Grammar School, and Presentation High School. She spent her childhood in the family home on 41st Avenue, near Fulton. She played at Playland at the Beach and roamed around Golden Gate Park. She and her brothers and sister played at Cabrillo Playground. After high school she worked as a teller at Hibernia Bank, where her sister Marcella was manager and then vice president. Rosanne was the great-granddaughter of San Francisco Police Srgt. Patrick McGee, the daughter of SFFD Firefighter Bernard Hagan, and the wife of SFPD Police Srgt. Victor Bertuccelli. She met our Dad in June 1956 when he was in the Police Academy, and they were married in January of 1957 in Carmel. That was the beginning of a fifty-year friendship and romance. Her family was her mission and life's work. She was predeceased by her husband Victor, whom she missed sorely, and spoke about every day. She is survived by her seven children Marianne, Michael, Jeanne, Paul, Claire, Victor, and Anthony, and her son-in-love John Palmayne who lived with her and cared for her, along with her sons Michael and Paul, like she was his own mother. She is also survived by 10 grandchildren - Don, Daniel, Eli, Libby, Nathaniel,

Hannah, Bella, Alyssa, Dominic, and Kaitlyn, and her first great granddaughter Scarlett. Visitation will be at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Windsor, at 10 am on November 9th, followed by a Rosary at 10:30 and the Service at 11 am. Interment at Cavalry Cemetery in Santa Rosa immediately following the service. Donations in Rosanne's memory can be made to Save the Children or St. Jude.
