

Savas "Don Ligio" Vega Neri

November 25, 1935 - June 19, 2026

Savas Vega Neri, affectionately known as "Don Ligio," passed away peacefully on June 19, 2026, in Petaluma CA at the age of 90.

Born on November 25, 1935, in Huacao, Michoacan MX, Savas spent his childhood and early years in the community he loved and proudly called home.

Don Ligio was a hardworking man whose life was defined by his commitment to providing for his family. Throughout the years, he worked as a construction worker, home builder, and agricultural laborer. He took great pride in working with his hands and helping build homes. Among all his work, he especially loved harvesting corn and spending time in the fields.

Those who knew Don Ligio will remember his strong work ethic, and his deep appreciation for a simple and honest life. He found joy in the beauty of the fields.

He leaves behind a loving family who will forever cherish his memory, including his sons, daughter, and grandchildren. His wisdom, strength, and example of perseverance will continue to live on through them and through all whose lives he touched.

Though he is no longer with us, Don Ligio's legacy of dedication, resilience, and love for family will remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.
